THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The highway from Shaoyang (111-23, 27-15) which passes through Tung'ou (111-21, 25-25) Chihmuchieh, and Anchiang (110-09, 27-18) to Kweichow, was long ago destroyed by guerrillas and traffic has not resumed.
2. On 23 November 1950 a convoy of 45 Communist military trucks proceeding to Kweiyang from Ch'angsha and Yungling (111-15, 28-28) was ambushed by 1,000 men hidden at three points along the road between Yungling (108-52, 27-18) and Hunghsien (109-06, 27-21). Twenty-eight Communist trucks were destroyed; 160 pounds of foodstuffs were captured; and 84 Communist soldiers guarding the truck were killed. Thirty-two Communists were captured, and the remainder escaped to the hills, where guerrilla forces are now searching for them.
3. Guerrilla forces in Ichang (112-51, 25-23) have been extending their activities into the Lochang (113-11, 25-08) area in north Kwangtung and attacking Communist rural grain-collection groups. During the night of 20 October 1950 they destroyed the Canton-Hankow Railroad at three points between Fingshih and Ch'uchiang (113-33, 24-50), and dynamited a railroad bridge. Rail traffic was interrupted for one day and one night. When the Communist railroad guards reached the scene, the guerrillas had left the area.
